ALDERMEN MET LAST NIGHT

Charges against A. Franke, sewer inspector, will be tried next Thursday night. This was decided upon last night at the regular meeting of the board of aldermen. A committee appointed by Chairman Al Foreman, of the council, together with City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., will prosecute the charges, while Attorney Tom Crice will represent Mr. Franke. The aldermen received and filed charges against Inspector Franke, handed in last night by Mayor James P. Smith. The hearing next Thursday night will be according to law and friends of Franke are of the opinion that he will be exonerated.

Ernest Lackey was made chairman of the meeting in the absence of President Hannan, who was kept away by the illness of his daughter.

Accounts amounting to $9,954.30 were allowed.

The board donated $250 to the Ohio Valley Improvement association.

Action of the council in referring the street car ordinance back to the ordinance committee and city solicitor was concurred in by the aldermen.

First and second passages were given the ordinance, providing for the grading and graveling of the alley running from Meyers street to Farley place in Mechanicsburg.

Permission was granted the Paducah Brewery company to construct concrete sidewalks in front of its plant on Monroe street between Ninth and Tenth street with the understanding that the improvement would not interfere with later improvements ordered by the city in the sewer work.

An ordinance was ordered brought in for improvements at Twelfth and Flournoy streets, upon an appeal from the health department through Health Officer H. P. Sights.

The ordinance committee was instructed to investigate the matter of getting a right of way on Faxon avenue from Twelfth to Thirteenth street and to bring in an ordinance if possible.

City Engineer L. A. Washington was instructed to enlarge the sewer running from the east end of Clements street, Mechanicsburg, to the Tennessee river.

A deed of transfer was granted R. B. Hicks for lot 139, block L., in Oak Grove cemetery to E. Rouse.

The public improvement committee was empowered to dispose of two fountains similar to the one at the corner of Third street and Broadway and select a site.

Those present at the meeting were: Lackey, Durrett, Hank, Gehlischlager, Potter and Stewart.

DISMISS CHARGE AGAINST R. PENN

BANDANA YOUTH NOT IDENTIFIED AS BURGLAR.

Commonwealth Recommends His Discharge on Preliminary Examination.

END OF SENSATIONAL CASE

Bandana, Ky., Sept. 24. (Special.)—Richard Penn, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Penn, and a prominent young man, was acquitted yesterday of the charge of burglary after the evidence of the prosecution had been offered. The first warrant was issued for house breaking, but this was dismissed upon motion of the defense, and a warrant for burglary was issued. Constable and Mrs. J. H. Holman were introduced and told the story of seeing the young man in the kitchen and they thought they recognized him as Penn. Without the introduction of a witness the defense made a motion to dismiss the charge, and it was sustained. Later an attempt was made to issue a warrant for housebreaking, but Penn had already been acquitted practically of the same charge. White & Corbett, of Wickliffe, and Hendrick & Corbett, of Paducah, represented Penn.

85 INDICTED ON FRAUD CHARGE

JAMES C. MAYBRAY AND EIGHTY-FOUR ASSOCIATES.

Men in All Parts of Country Swindled in Sums, in Aggregate Half a Million.

USING THE MAILS TO DEFAUD

Council Bluffs, Ia., Sept. 24.—James C. Maybray and 84 alleged associates were indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of conspiring to defraud by illegal use of the mails. With the exception of Maybray and three others, none of those indicted are in custody and the names of the defendants were not made public. It was said that the list includes many persons known in criminal annals in all parts of the country and that nearly every name is followed by one to four aliases. Each of these alleged confederates had a number which is given as one of the aliases accredited to the defendant.

Although specific amounts are not mentioned in the indictment, it is authoritatively stated that the amounts lost by the alleged victims exceed half a million dollars. The individual losses range from $1,500 to $30,000, the latter sum having been placed on a fake horse race, according to evidence by a Missouri banker. The list of victims in the indictment include men of prominence in all parts of the country and there are set forth letters of an incriminating character. Victims in 18 states, Alaska and Canada are named. As a basis of operation, the alleged conspirators used Council Bluffs, Davenport, Burlington, St. Louis, Little Rock, Seattle, Denver and New Orleans, to which places it is alleged the victims were taken by numerous steers.

In specifying the instances of violations of the postal laws, the indictment includes copies of many sensational letters alleged to have been exchanged between Maybray and his associates, which refer to alleged deals, and name various sums as having changed hands as the result of the alleged operations.

One letter dated New York invites "Friend John," who is alleged to be Maybray to go to New York, declaring "I have in the town right across the river in Jersey, a swell track, with absolute protection. The sheriff prosecutor and police will be right on the job during working hours."

In a subsequent letter the same man wrote that the location was only 20 minutes from New York and that "fixing" could be done for $75 a week, "which would cover everything, that is the sheriff, chief and prosecuting attorney."

Another letter was cited, dated Polk City, Iowa, signed F. R. Marts, enclosing $1,000 "to apply as forfeit money on our deal pending."

A letter from Samuel Sutor, Cass Lake, Minn., says:

"I've made my check on a bank up there for $5,000," and declares he arranged to have the check taken care of by the bank.

A list of the alleged victims follows:

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR.

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first-class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price. ## THREE PRIESTS

MENTIONED FOR SUCCESSOR TO BISHOP McCLOSKEY.

Father Cronin Cannot Divulge the Names of Those Selected for Honor.

Louisville, Sept. 24.—Three priests were named by the irremovable rectors of the Louisville diocese at a meeting yesterday morning, one of whom may be selected to succeed the late Bishop McCloskey. The meeting was held in the Cathedral rectory, and Archbishop Moeller, of Cincinnati, presided at the conference.

When approached by a reporter the Very Rev. James P. Cronin declined to make any statement, asking pardon for causing disappointment, saying that he was in honor bound not to make public the proceedings of the meeting.

In regard to the meeting nothing could be learned. It could not be learned even that the archbishop had appointed an administrator to head the diocese until a bishop is named by the pope, but the Very Rev. James P. Cronin is the highest dignitary now in the diocese, and is now in charge.

The men selected as possible successors as head of the diocese are merely recommended to the pope for appointment. If the men chosen by the irremovable pastors do not meet the approval of the archbishop he may reject the three candidates and nominate three others, or may make three nominations along with those of the irremovable rectors.
